

HUDSONVILLE CHRISTIAN SCHOOL EDUCATION FOUNDATION ENROLLMENT GRANT

Purpose:

1. To encourage families who haven't experienced Christian school education to take advantage of it for their families.
2. To carry out the vision of the HCS Education Foundation of promoting Christ-centered education and assisting in making it affordable for families.
3. To create a greater awareness of the Education Foundation and its goals.
4. To help promote Christian education in the community.

Funding:

Up to half of the money given to Hudsonville Christian School from the Education Foundation each fiscal year may be used as grant money.

Plan:

1. Interested families will complete an application form.
2. Applicants whose child(ren) are currently not enrolled in Christian schools may apply.
3. Applications will be screened and approved by the Administration with the approval of the Hudsonville Christian School Board.
4. The plan applies to students entering grades 1-5.
5. Families who are approved will receive 75% tuition benefit the first year, 50% tuition the second year and 25% tuition the third year.
6. Once the grant is approved, HCS will contribute $3 for every $1 the new family pays for tuition during the first year. The second year HCS will contribute an equal amount of money that is paid by the family. The third year HCS will pay $1 for every $3 paid by the family.
7. Families who currently have children at Hudsonville Christian School are invited to encourage other families to apply for this scholarship. If that family applies and is approved, this family will receive a one year 15% reduction in tuition.
