

LET'S GO! BIBLE ADVENTURES

AUTHOR VISIT & BOOK ORDER

FUN EXPERIENCE, MEMORABLE GIFT

Children's author Valerie Ellis is coming to our school on March 13th! Valerie will explore writing, creativity, and the wonders of God's word with kids as she shares her book, Let's Go! Bible Adventures, during age-tailored sessions for Young 5s through 2nd grade.

Taking home a signed book is a fun way to commemorate the author-visit experience! Books are available to order in advance and will be distributed at the visit. Please order by March 5th.

About the Book: Get ready for a fun, engaging way to introduce kids to God's timeless word! This rhyming storybook Bible contrasts modern-day vehicles with Bible-times travel and gives families a fresh way to enjoy faithfully-told Bible stories together. Let's Go! Bible Adventures has favorite stories and less familiar ones, all centered on God's amazing wonders and caring ways. Peek inside at ValerieEllis.com/LetsGo.

About the Author: Valerie Ellis is a children's book author, speaker, and founder of the multi-author online resource Our Everyday Parables, which offers book reviews and ideas for families pursuing faith and compassion. A certified teacher, Valerie is passionate about helping kids and parents connect with God and each other in the everyday moments. Her books are created to serve families at the intersection of faith and fun. Valerie lives in Houston with her husband and two boys.
